A DISPLAY WITHOUT PARALLEL!

This has been a remarkable season-a most backward one for Overcoats. We've got piled on our tables thousands of the handsomest garments it has ever been your privilege to see -the largest in numbers, the finest in quality, and most varied in fabric we've ever had-making a display unparalleled in the annals of the Clothing business of Virginia. We are tired of waiting for the weather to create a demand, so we've put a price on them that will make them go-and with a rush.

THEY ARE MADE UP FROM

Imported and Domestic

Chinchillas, Meltons, Beavers. Cheviots, Kerseys, Worsteds. Frieze,

WITH SATIN LINING

Italian Lining, Cassimere Lining,

Serge Lining, Silk or Satin Facing (OR WITHOUT ANY FACING), Silk or Satin

> Sleeve Lining (WITH OR WITHOUT VELVET COLLAR).

It seems a pity to sacrifice these Overcoats at this price, but what the elements have failed to do for us we must do for ourselves. Each single, individual garment is a graceful, form-fitting, custommade one, trimmed with an elegance and taste becoming the merchant tailor's finest productions, and made with the characteristic care and conscientious concern for each detail that are so prominently noticeable in all our clothing.

We tell you, gentlemen of Richmond, that no tailor in the land, whose product is worthy of the name of tailor-made, can duplicate the cheapest coat in the lot for less than $30, while there are many that $40 represent the tailor's value. The entire stock, without reserve, of the $24, $23, $22, $20, and $18 OVERCOATS, ULSTERS, and CAPE OVERCOATS go in this sale at $13.75. You will see a crowd at our store from the time this sale opens, which is at windows you'll see samples of some of the Frock Overcoats, Cape Overcoats, Surtout Overcoats that go at Also the Short Overcoats, Long Overcoats, Storm Overcoats, and Ulsters that are in this sale.

O'CLOCK SHARP TO-MORROW MORNING;

for the people know that our announcements are not of the same character as those you have been flooded with for months past. Scores of merchants were the first to respond to our Special Suit Sale. These men knew us. They know the tricks of trade; and, what we are proud of, they know we have only square and fair business methods. Hence they come. We stake our reputation for truth on the statement that this sale is the greatest sacrifice we have ever made. Mind you, it includes ULSTERS. Mind you, it includes CAPE COATS. Mind you, it includes every $24, $23, $22, $20, and $18 OVERCOAT in the house.

Mr. Thomas Waller, former internal-revenue collector of this city, but for several years travelling salesman for a Tennessee house, was to-day taken off the train at this place very sick and carried to the Hotel Dannehl, where he is now confined. Mr. Waller is well and widely known, and it is hoped that he will soon recover.

withdrawn and an apology tendered.

SENT HIM TO GRASS.

This Mr. Clarke promptly refused to do, and simultaneously with his refusal Mr. Eandolph knocked him off the steps to the sidewalk. The next minute was one of confusion and gunpowder. Mr. Clarke drew a revolver and fired point-blank at Mr. Randolph, who could not have been more than six feet away at the time, without hitting him, and while the smoke of the first shot was still pouring from the barrel of his revolver, two more bullets followed the first.

BEOF FROM BEHIND.

shor from behind.

Mr. Randolph hurried to the Hoffman House and begged Detective Jacobs to low him a revolver, saying that an attempt has been made to kill him, that he had been shot from behind, and that the man who shot him knew that he was unarmed. MR. RANDOLPH WOUNDED.

At the Hoffman House, however, it was currently reported that Mr. Randolph was a man who would not calmly allow an assault like last night's to pass unnoticed, and it was seriously intimated that a meeting was not altogether suprobable. Just what the real origin of the trouble was no one seems to know, although it is pretty certain that it was the result of a misunderstanding at poker or a difference of opinion in relation to the Jefferson Davis memorial resolution which brought forth the resignation of Vice-President St. John the other day.
